ADMINISTRATION DIRECTORATE REVIEW: TRENDS AND HIGHLIGHTS

Evaluation

In order to enhance the usefulness of the Trends and Highlights Course to you and future participants, a continuing process of evaluation is necessary. We ask your cooperation in assisting us in keeping the course responsive to the needs of the participants.

COURSE OBJECTIVE

The objective of the course is to update Deputy Director for Administration careerists' knowledge and understanding of current activities, problems and trends in the Directorate and its various offices.

A.   Please indicate on this numerical scale how well in your estimation, the course has met its objective. (Number 1 is the lowest, number 7 is the highest.)

B.   What was the most useful segment of the program to you in your present assignment? The least useful? Please describe how you see the program benefiting you.

STATINTL

The most useful segment of the program to me was the trip + tour of ▓▓▓▓▓▓. I am very interested in the commo field and after seeing and hearing the presentation I know I want this field to be my career.

I suppose the least useful (though I was very impressed by all the sessions and learned a great deal more about the DDA) would have to be the finance session. It is only

C. Did you feel the session on the Administration Directorate/
Management & Advisory Group (AD/MAG) was beneficial? Why?

It was beneficial in the aspect that it opened the door a little more for those who have only vaguely realized who and what this group actually was striving to achieve by the way of registering a complaint or a grief "on the spot."

D. Other Comments:

natural to take certain things for granted, and as long as I get my salary, I will probably take it for granted and at the same time sympathize with this Directorate.

"Trends and Highlights" was very beneficial. I no longer feel completely in the dark in my own DDA. I strongly recommend this training course to continue in the future.
